Guest Speaker Bio

Belinda Hutchinson AC

Belinda is a founding director and Chair of Eureka Benevolent Foundation, a family foundation that partners with individuals, families and communities to address and overcome disadvantage with a particular focus on education. She has held leadership positions in major companies such as Telstra, Coles, Qantas and QBE Insurance, and served on a number of not-for-profit boards. She was President of the Council of the State Library of New South Wales and Chief Executive Women, as well as a director of St Vincents Health Australia and the Salvation Army. In June she completed her term as Chancellor of the University of Sydney, where for 12 years she advocated for the importance of education and research.
